THE LICOSICE AMENDMENT TO THE TOBACCO SECTION OF THE REVENUE BILL; WHO VOTED FOR SIXTEEN CENTS; A MINORITY REPORT-THE TEXAS-PACIFIC-WHITE SULPHUR-PER-SONAL-THE FISHING TREATY-CIGARS AND COUPON STAMPS - SENATOR WINDOM'S SCHEME-VERDICT IN THE ARLINGTON CASE, [From Our Regular Correspondent.]

WASHINGTON, January 30 .- The Senate Finance Committee to-day reconsidered their licorice amendment to the tobacco section of the revenue bill, and thus relieved the friends of reduction of the fear they had of trouble on this score. They allowed the tobacco tax. however, to remain at 20c., as agreed upon the other day. I called on Mr. Voorhees at the Senate chamber to-day, and, after informing him how much gratified the people of Richmond and of Virginia were at his vote, asked him who of the committee roted with him for 16c., and be replied: "Jones of Nevada and Wallace." He also said that they would make a minority report, which is now being prepared. I have reliable information that Mr. Bayard will not make opposition to the minority report when it comes before the Senate. All of his tobacco friends in Congress are strongest light. He was in the House today. Your correspondent asked Mr. Voorhees if the opinion of some senators that his committee would complete the consideration of the revenue bill this week was well founded, and he said, "No; that he did not expect the report on it could be made before the last of next week." Your correspondent this morning encountered leading tobacco manufacturers from the East and West in squads all about the Capitol. Some of them had just arrived, and all seemed to be in dead earnest. He informed Mr. Seidler, of the firm of Lorillard & Co., what the committee had done in regard to Beorice, and he said, "Good; that relieves us of a difficulty." Mr. Seidler added that he thought we are now all right in the Senate. So confident, in fact, do leading to. bacco-men here feel as to the Senate, that they now ask the question whether there is any fear of a presidential veto.

THE TEXAS-PACIFIC ROAD. The friends of this great improvement are at the Capitoi daily, and are evidently working with zeal. In the Senate Mr. Allison, of Iowa, has been designated to fill the place of Mr. Christiancy on the Judiciary Committee, and he is not, I hear, in favor of the Texas-Pacific bill.

Mr. Stuart has by his own efforts amassed a fortune, and his friends here say if he cannot make the White Sulphur a success, no one else can.

THE IMPROVEMENT OF THE RAPPAHANNOCK

Messrs. John L. Marye, E. M. Braxton, Charles Wallace, and James Burwell Ficklen are here to urge the House Committee on Commerce to recommend the appropriation of the Rappahannock river. They say the small annual appropriations heretofore have done harm instead of good, and that two steamers have been wrecked in the river recently. The committee is a strong one.

The Senate resolution which requests the President to inform the British Government that the United States desires to do expiration was to-day considered by the House Committee on Foreign Relations. The Board presents the outlines of a system of quarantine which they say may afford the greatest attainable degree of protection against the introduction and spread of infectious epidemic diseases and at the same time inflict only a minimum of injury and inconvenience upon commerce. Two classes of medical officers are suggested-first, medical officers of health to serve in foreign ports from which we receive importations of vellowfever and cholera; secondly, medical officers of health to have charge of the quarantine stations and to supervise inter-State travel and traffic from infected places on the line of the epidemic. The defendants entered a motion for a new trial on the grounds-first, that the Court erred in overruling the objection made by the defendants to the introduction of evidence; second, that the verdict is contrary to the evidence; third, that the Court erred in excluding the evidence offered by the defendants. The Court wished in Richmond in two weeks, and could then sign them. Some groups of the Right, including the Bonapartists, will support M. Grevy, whose election will be nearly unanimous. The Legitimists will probably abstain. Messrs. Gambetta and Marcere have been to congratulate M. Grevy.

It is understood the ministry will move that the Chambers, after the election, adjourn for a week to allow time to settle pending questions. It is the general opinion of the deputies of the Left that the present Cabinet should remain in office.
